TEACHER OF ENGLISH / MEDIA STUDIES

MPS/UPS for September 2017

A teacher of English / Media Studies is required at Shirley High School.

We wish to appoint an inspiring, enthusiastic and motivated teacher who has a passion for learning. We offer students a pathway from Year 7 to Year 13 through curriculum lessons, GCSEs, A Levels and enrichment. Applications will be welcomed from experienced teachers as well as those beginning their careers.

- Over 1000 students on roll and a small and growing Sixth Form.
- a strong belief in the professional development of all staff
- a very good reputation with parents / carers and the community
- a commitment to continuous improvement

We offer excellent working conditions with key benefits that include:

- A great work / life balance
- Childcare Voucher Scheme, Cycle to Work Scheme
- Free tea and coffee
- Staff Mentoring
- Staff car park on site
- A strong focus on the professional development of all staff within our school
- NQT's receive a one-off payment of £600 for a two-week induction period in July.

Shirley High School is a highly successful, mixed 11 – 18 secondary school with approximately 1000 students on roll located on a fabulous 'leafy' site on the outskirts of Croydon with excellent transport links. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
