25 hours per week term time only

Shirley High School is seeking to appoint Student Support Assistants for September 2018.

Student Support Assistants required to support students aged from 11 – 18 years of age with specific learning needs. Your support will be required in the classroom as well as on a one to one basis for 25 hours per week, term time only. We wish to appoint enthusiastic individuals to work within our Inclusion and Student Support Department.

We offer excellent working conditions with key benefits that include:

- A great work / life balance
- Childcare Voucher Scheme, Cycle to Work Scheme
- Staff Mentoring
- Staff car park on site
- A strong focus on the professional development of all staff within our school

Shirley High School is a highly successful, mixed 11-18 secondary school with over 1000 students on roll located on a fabulous 'leafy' site on the outskirts of Croydon with excellent transport links.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. More information can be downloaded from our website www.shirley.croydon.sch.uk
